CASP<sup>SM</sup> PROGRAM GUIDE

Collins Aerospace

A premier, power-by-the-hour maintenance program dedicated to you and your Collins Aerospace equipped aircraft, backed by a global network of authorized dealers. Our Collins Avionics Service Program (CASP<sup>SM</sup>) assures you maximum aircraft availability while eliminating financial risk. Managing and maintaining your avionics and cabin equipment can be unpredictable and costly, with component failures often exceeding the cost of what would have been paid for full CASP coverage. For a simple, predictable solution that provides peace of mind and world-renowned service and support, CASP has you covered.

THREE WAYS TO ENROLL

- Contact an authorized Collins Aerospace dealer
- Contact your local Collins Aerospace representative
- Contact the CASP team

PROGRAM OVERVIEW

STRUCTURE

- Coverage of avionics and cabin equipment
- Price per flight hour based on aircraft platform
- Minimum annual flight hours of 100 to 250, based on aircraft platform and service selected
- One- and three-year contracts available, with upfront annual payments
- End-of-term flight hour reconciliation, credit or debit, based on minimums
- Simple enrollment and immediate coverage, with no pre-inspection or buy-in fees
- Seamless contract transfer with aircraft sale, at no additional cost or interruption of benefits

TIERS

- CASP, our most popular program, offers unparalleled customer support, cost control and program inclusions – value and trust in a simple, flexible package
- CASP Elite, our premier service, offers complete maintenance protection, exclusive incentives and savings in one premium support solution
- CASP Essential, available on select turboprops and light business jets, offers a cost-effective solution for low flight hour operators
